FROM THE CEO'S DESK

"We bring the right people together to challenge established norm, support new way of thinking and drive digital transformation."

Working to empower SME in the digital era seems to be a major trend and big challenges, as Industry 4.0 is revolutionizing the way companies manufacture, improve and distribute their products, be an independent, privately-owned, This has been possible because of our relentless commitment to work closely in understanding not only the key strategic goals and single business models of our clients but also that subtle match between the solution that we look to solve based on our clients' unique organizational DNA.

When being asked about how these technological acquisitions impacted our clients companies structure, we would says that there are certain changes and adjustments that they have to make because they can be a variety of solutions to a problem and there is no one system that is applicable for all SME's needs but we had done it!"

On behalf of the Executive Board of ARMIENA Group and our people, we look forward to serving you and your company's needs and to supporting our mission to pursue our nation digitalization goals.
